

American Well is looking to hire QA professionals for the Exploratory Testing Team on an as needed basis!

All you need is a PC or Mac with webcam, and Apple or Android smartphone or tablet.

You can do it in your free time. 100% work from home!

How it works:

- 1) Apply to this ad with your resume
- 2) If interested, fill out a short form and send it back to me
- 3) I will then follow up with a contract
- 4) If hired, we contact you when we need our software to be tested (2-4 week-long test cycles a month)
- 5) If you can't participate in a cycle, no worries, we will reach out the next time!
- 6) You test the software per provided instructions and file the defects
- 7) Once test cycle is complete, we pay you for the defects you found and time spent testing!

Any QA specialist who has necessary equipment and wants to make some extra money in your free time, please apply here!
